position overview and purpose

Parkville Youth Justice Precinct is a youth custodial facility that accommodates children and young people aged 10 to 21 years (up to 24 years depending on age of sentencing). Parkville is the reception point for the Youth Justice custodial system and as such, all reception health assessments are undertaken at Parkville before some young men will be transferred to Cherry Creek Youth Justice Precinct. The primary health service at Parkville is a nurse-led model, with 24/7 on-site nursing coverage.

At Parkville, cohealth aims to deliver a quality, flexible, integrated, efficient service within the custodial environment to young people based on their health needs. This includes delivering primary health, allied health, dental and mental health services, and includes screening, assessing, triaging, and referring to secondary and tertiary health services based on clinical need. cohealth shares a vision for healthy children and young people in custody, supported by a health service responsive to their needs.

cohealth's inclusive workplace culture enables staff to bring their whole selves to work, where uniqueness is valued, and people experience a feeling of belonging. Our aim is for everyone to thrive in their role.

The Registered Nurse is responsible for the delivery of high quality and safe program(s) and provides comprehensive nursing services to the young people navigating the Justice System, including quality clinical nursing services that are culturally appropriate and responsive to individual needs.

Assessment, treatment, care planning, cross sector service coordination and health education are essential elements of the services provided by nursing staff. The Registered Nurse role is a key operational position servicing the Parkville Youth Justice Precinct focusing on providing holistic multidisciplinary health care and care planning to the general community. The role of the Registered Nurse aims to enhance the quality delivery and integration of health care by providing nursing services within a multidisciplinary team framework.
